

92
points
Drink: 2013-2023

2011 Betton Hermitage Blanc

A significant step up, the 2011 Hermitage Blanc is a smoking good wine. Rich, textured and layered, with classic mineral-laced white currants, honeysuckle and buttered fruits, it has medium to full-bodied richness, beautiful freshness and serious length. It will evolve gracefully for over a decade.

Importer: Fruit of the Vines, Long Island, NY; Tel. (718) 392-5640

- Jeb Dunnuck (December, 2013)

Copyright 2014, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission

86
points
Drink: 2013-2016

2011 Betton Crozes Hermitage Caprice

Earthy and slightly herbaceous, the 2011 Crozes Hermitage Caprice offers solid blackberry, damp underbrush, mineral and hints of leather to go with a medium-bodied, quaffable palate. Improving with air, enjoy it over the coming couple of years.

Importer: Fruit of the Vines, Long Island, NY; Tel. (718) 392-5640

- Jeb Dunnuck (December, 2013)

Copyright 2014, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission